

HILL COLLEGE

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Hill College is committed to the principle of equal opportunity in education and employment. The college does not discriminate against individuals on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, genetic information, or veteran status in the administration of its educational programs, activities, or employment policies.

ACCOMMODATIONS AND NONDISCRIMINATION

Federal law prohibits the College from making preadmission inquiries regarding a student's disability. Information regarding a student's disability, voluntarily given or inadvertently received, will not adversely affect any admission decision. If a student requires special services and/or accommodations as a result of a disability, the student must notify the Academic Advising and Success Center. This voluntary self-identification allows Hill College to prepare appropriate support services and/or accommodations to facilitate the student's learning. Confidentiality of the information will be maintained in accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as Amended (FERPA), and shared only with College officials with a legitimate educational interest in the information. To the extent reasonably appropriate, the college will provide special services and/or accommodations to qualified individuals with a disability in accordance with Section 504 the Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), ADA Amendments Act, and Title IX.

Disabilities/ADA

Reports of discrimination based on disability may be directed to the ADA/Section 504 coordinator. The College District designates the following person to coordinate its efforts to comply with Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, which incorporates and expands the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended:

Name: Lizza Trenkle, Vice President Student Services
Address: 112 Lamar Drive, Hillsboro, TX 76645
Telephone: (254) 659-7601

Students with qualified and documented disabilities may request accommodations which will enable them to participate in and benefit from educational programs and activities. Students should contact the Academic Advising and Success Center for more details at 254-659-7650 for Hill County Campus, 817-760-5650 for Johnson County Campus, or 817-295-7392 for Burleson Center.

Title IX

Reports of discrimination based on sex, including sexual harassment or gender-based harassment, may be directed to the Title IX Coordinator. The College District designates the following person to coordinate its efforts to comply with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended:

Name: Jamie Jaska, Director of Human Resources
Address: 112 Lamar Drive, Hillsboro, TX 76645
Telephone: (254) 659-7731

The College District prohibits discrimination, including harassment, against individuals on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, genetic information, or veteran status in the administration of its educational programs, activities, or employment policies. Retaliation against anyone involved in the complaint process is a violation of College District policy and is prohibited.

Dear Students,

The faculty and staff of Hill College are steadfast in our dedication to supporting your academic, career, and personal development goals. At Hill College we value people and are constantly working toward the best possible student experience. Our advisors will help you enroll in affordable, high quality courses that enter you into one of our four academic and career pathways. Our academic and career pathways offer you a wide range of courses and programs leading to gainful employment, transfer to a four-year institution, or both. Hill College offers you flexible scheduling and course delivery options including face-to-face, online, and hybrid (mixture of online and face-to-face) formats.

We believe in your ability to learn and grow through hard work, tenacity, and resilience, with guidance from our talented and nurturing faculty and staff. We are dedicated to removing barriers and providing innovative and engaging learning environments for you and your classmates from all walks of life. We believe one of the most important aspects of college is that it is a place to have your ideas challenged and your critical thinking sharpened.

We believe it is critically important for you to learn the practices of civic engagement and civil discourse that will broaden your perspectives and prepare you to contribute to our economy and society. Hill College celebrates cultural and ethnic diversity and recognizes the most important diversity of all – the diversity of ideas – deepens everyone’s experience and supports the public good.

Best wishes for your lifetime of learning.

Let’s Do the Work!
